

1-6-1,5

Who Am I?

Grade Level	First
Minimum Time Required	30 Minutes
Materials/Resources	Paper
Subject Area(s)	Guidance

Project Description:

1. Ask students to share examples of jobs that adults do in the community.
2. From the attachment, read descriptions of jobs that adults do in the school. Ask students to guess what the job is and discuss how it helps the school.
3. Each student is assigned one of the school jobs listed. Ask them to draw a picture of that person doing their job, and write "Thank you, _____ Name _____".
4. Thank you pictures may be displayed or given to appropriate staff.

Career Development Standard	Skills to understand and use career information.
Career Development Indicator	Describe work of family members, school personnel, and community workers. Describe jobs that are present in the local community.
Delivery Level	Review
Academic Standards
Language Arts	4.1.b Present information in a clear and logical form. 4.2.c Use accepted language in personal communication.
Employability/SCANS Skills	Basic Skills Thinking Skills Personal Qualities
Assessment/Rubric	Students will identify various school jobs that adults do.

Submitted by: Elementary Group NCDG

Who Am I

- ? This person weighs you on a scale, gives you shots, and checks your vision. (Nurse) Can a nurse be a man? Of course he can.
- ? This person makes a budget for the school and makes you follow the bigger rules, and works in an office all day long, and meets with the parents and teachers. (Principal) Can the principal be a woman? Yes she can!
- ? This person sweeps and cleans all day, and makes sure the room temperature is just right, and fixes things that break. (Custodian) Can this person be a man or a woman? Of course!
- ? This person types the letters for the school, and keeps the attendance, counts the lunch money, and answers the phone. (Secretary) Could this person be a man or a woman? Definitely!
- ? This person gives instruction in math, reading, writing, science and art. (Teacher) Will you have both men and women teachers? Certainly!
- ? This person talks to you when you are sad, and helps you learn about making friends, and tells you about careers in your school. (Counselor) Can counselors be men or women? Of course!
- ? This person helps us check out books and find information when we need it and takes care of all our library materials. (Librarian) Could either be a man or a woman? You bet!
- ? This person keeps track of our lunch money and punches our lunch tickets. (Lunch room worker)
- ? This person teaches us how to use the computer, and keep the computer labs neat and running. (Computer Aide)